A Celebration of Excellence

The thunder and lightening, the pouring rain, and the flickering lights couldn't keep members of the Olney Chamber of Commerce from their annual Awards and Installation Dinner. Special guest County Executive Ike Leggett spoke to those in attendance and helped honor the Chamber's Awardees. The Chamber honored Ellen Coleman as the Business Person of the Year, awarded The Olney Tavern with its Partner in Business Award, recognized Dr. Ed Hoffman of Olney Chiropractic for his service to the Chamber Board of Directors and recognized four outstanding students, Casey Fletcher, William Thomas, Christopher Palumbo, and Erin Washburn with $1000 scholarship awards. County Executive Leggett then installed the Officers and Directors of the 2009-2010 Board of Directors. John Austin of Austin Financial will lead the board that consists of several seasoned veterans and some new faces. The Chamber is looking forward to an exciting new membership year.

The Chamber would like to thank the Inn at Brookeville Farms for hosting the event. It was lovely as always. They would also like to thank Penny Chocolates & Gelato, Clark Concepts, and Quinter Design for their help making the evening a success.
