

Dear Olney Chamber Member,

Bruce Johnson here. I want to thank you so much for inviting me to spend last evening with you at your annual awards banquet. I thoroughly enjoyed my time with you and was very impressed with the commitment you have to one another--and one another's businesses. I was also grateful for the warm reception you gave me--as well as your rapt attention during my short presentation on being more remarkable.

As promised (I wouldn't be very remarkable if I didn't follow through :-)) I'm enclosing the links I mentioned last evening, as well as a few other links for you to take advantage of. So, here they are.

1. My website is <http://www.acceleratedgrowth.org>
2. My blog, with the story of Shadi and Home Depot, can be found on the tab for "Blog" on my site--or the short cut is <http://www.theAGblog.com> (AG is short for accelerated growth--which makes it easy to remember. Also, my twitter handle is @theAGguy). Either option takes you to the same place.
3. The Make it Remarkable process one sheet (which you can print out and it'll walk you through all five steps of the Make it Remarkable Process) is found under the tab for Free Resources > Free Tools and Helps or <http://acceleratedgrowth.org/free-resources/free-tools/>
4. The video clip which includes the first point of the process, with images of Picasso's paintings is found under Services > Speaking > Video Samples or <http://acceleratedgrowth.org/our-services/speaking/video/>
5. Finally, there are two options on the right side of my site you may want to take advantage of. The first is an RSS feed that will send new blog posts directly to your email account (makes it easy so you don't have to remember to go to the blog). Just enter your email address and you're done. And the one below it is a subscription form for my ezine called, Accelerated Growth Caffeine. If you enter your name and email there, you'll not only get business growth ideas once or twice a month, you'll also get a free report on "The 7 Secrets of Fast Growth Companies," with lots of tangible growth ideas for your business.

Hope they all help! And if there's any way I can help you grow your business faster and more profitably, just let me know!

Bruce

P.S. One last thing, unrelated to business, if you have a daughter or niece, I just started a new blog this week for my two daughters, Chelsea and Brooke (21 and 18) on life lessons I want to pass along to them. So, you may want to check out <http://www.lettersformydaughters.com>. I've posted five lessons so far this week and I think you'll like it as well. Pass it along!
